

Meet Jim Strohecker

Jim Strohecker was born and raised in Sunbury, Pennsylvania and has lived in Lancaster for the last 30 years. He graduated with a Business Degree in Administration from Bloomsburg University.

Jim served 6 years in the U.S. Navy during the Vietnam War. After receiving his college degree, Jim gained 24 years experience in a manufacturing environment as a programmer analyst. He also was responsible for sales and marketing for a retirement community.

This led him to a position as Health Broker/Agent for the NTI Group in Lancaster.

Jim, what else would you like your clients to know about you?

I have been married to my wife, Tracey, for 39 years. I have two grown sons and three grandchildren.

How do you like to spend your free time?

I enjoy staying healthy by eating right, jogging regularly and being thankful for each new day!

What was your childhood dream?

My childhood dream was to become a cowboy.

What is your proudest moment?

My proudest moment was the birth of our son.

Ok, tell us something most people don't know about you?

My love for JESUS CHRIST!

What has been your most significant learning experience?

The process of becoming licensed for Health and Life insurance.

Why did you decide to join the NTI Group?

I really liked the diversity of people who are with the NTI Group and how the organization looked after the needs of their clients.

What is the best comment a client gave you about your services?

"I trust you!"
